GREENVILLE

Death of William H. Coughlin Following illness With Pneumonia—Accident at Cotton Mill—Other Mention.

It was with sincere regret that the many friends of William H. Coughlin learned of his death at his home, No. 31 Prospect street, on Tuesday morning at 6:15 o'clock. On Sunday, December 5, he was stricken with a congestive chill and pneumonia followed. Death came peacefully and he was conscious until the end.

Mr. Coughlin was born 69 years ago, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Coughlin. For over fifty years he has resided in Greenville. When a young man he learned the trade of blacksmith in the C. B. Rogers machine shop, and later he was employed for thirty years in the repair shop of the Consolidated Railroad company on North Main street. For a number of years he was foreman. For the past few years he has been employed at the Hopkins & Allen Arms company's plant. One year ago last Saturday Mr. Coughlin was operated on for appendicitis, and this left him in a weakened condition.

Mr. Coughlin was married in St. Mary's church to Miss Nellie E. Brennan by the late Rev. Daniel Mullin. His wife survives him, with two sisters, Mrs. James Carver of Smith avenue and Mrs. John H. Burke of his brothers. Timothy C. Coughlin of Greenville, and John Coughlin, a contractor of Greenville, S. C., and eleven children also survive.

In the death of Mr. Coughlin the village loses one of its most popular and well known citizens. He was a kind and loving husband, an affectionate father and a true friend. The death of such a man is a sad loss to his family and will be deeply felt in the community.

Forty Hours' Devotion Closes.

The forty hours' devotion in St. Mary's church came to a close on Tuesday morning. The 6 o'clock mass was celebrated by the Rev. William A. Keefe, the 7 o'clock by the Rev. M. J. Lynch of Baltic and the 8 o'clock mass at which the closing exercises took place by the Rev. Joseph E. Belanger of Voluntown. The procession of the Blessed Sacrament, in which the members of the Angel Guardian society, the altar boys and Father Belanger participated, was held. About 1,400 people received holy communion during the devotion.

Injured Internally.
A Polish man employed by the She-tucket company fell off a wagon at the cotton mill Tuesday noon and a bale of goods fell on him. He was rather badly hurt and it is feared he is injured internally. He was attended by Dr. Lapiere.

Fitchville Parishioners Present Him a Purse of $180 and Other Gifts.

In honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood the members of the Fitchville parish, over which Rev. M. H. May presides, gave a complete surprise in Fitchville hall on Tuesday, when they presented him a purse of $180, a bracelet from the women of the Ladies' society of the church, and a bouquet of chrysanthemums from Miss Elizabeth Kingberger, who made the presentation speech. It was a great surprise to the popular rector of St. Andrew's church, but he was equal to the occasion and made a pleasing response.

Later a banquet was served at the home of the Misses Kingberger to a number of their intimate friends.

Twenty motors, of forty horse power each, have arrived in Norwich from the Connecticut company and are now at the car barn in Greenville. These motors will be fitted to five new double-truck closed cars which the company has ordered. The new equipment, it is stated, will be for use on the main line from New London to Williamantic and will be of the same size as the present through cars in use. The date of the arrival of the new cars is not yet known, but it is hoped to have them as soon as possible, as they are demanded by the traffic and the company needs more spare cars.

PROGRESS IN CONSTRUCTION WORK

Fireproof Partitions Being Constructed in Shannon Building—Getting Ready for Second Floor of Addition—Steel Girders in Bank Building Placed.

Good progress is being made on the large construction jobs under way in the city, the weather assisting the contractors to a marked degree and full advantage is being taken of it in every case.

For some time the Shannon building has been covered in and the workmen are now engaged in constructing the stairways of concrete reinforced and the erection of the partition walls of hollow tile brick on the several floors of the building. These can be constructed cut the brick being large and easily handled. A boatload of the tile brick has been received for this work. The window sash and door frames are being placed in the building, all being fireproof.

In the addition to the building in Main street, the first reinforced concrete floor has been poured, and the carpenters are erecting the forms for the second floor. This will be pushed along much more rapidly than was the main building, being much smaller, the work less complicated, and delays less liable except from bad weather.

At Mr. Shannon's new hotel, the brickwork for the walls of the third floor is about finished, while the forms are being placed for the pouring of the fourth floor in this five-story building. The job of sinking the hole through solid rock for the elevator shaft has been completed, and Engineer Wells has left the city.

MUCH INTEREST LOCALLY IN WORCESTER ELECTION
Bulletin Besieged by Inquiries for the Result of License Vote When License Prevailed—Norwich Man at Election.

There was much local interest in the election in Worcester on Tuesday when the license question was voted upon. Throughout the evening there were many telephone calls to the Bulletin office for news of the result. The returns were not sent out until late, although it was learned about 10 o'clock that license had prevailed, yet the press report was not received until about midnight, showing a majority of 3,769 for license.

All eyes have been centered upon Worcester in this election and for the past three months frequent calls have been received, asking how the election had gone, the eagerness for the fray causing the imaginary advancement of the election date in the minds of many.

O. B. Ryther, one of the prominent no-license advocates in this city, was in Worcester for the election Tuesday. Regarding his experience there, and the election, he writes as follows: "Awakening Tuesday morning from a few cat naps, not daring to sleep soundly for fear of oversleeping, I left my room at 5:30 a. m. and called on the roof and window panes, to the tune of which the city was to wage the battle of the ballots on the license question. For the first time in its history, Worcester has had two successive years of no-license, and both sides have regarded the year as a critical one in determining the policy of the city in this important question. The added fact that Worcester is the largest city in the state under no-license by local option has centered the eyes of the world on today's battle."

Both sides have waged strenuous campaigns. The license forces tried to make it appear that kitchen barrooms flourish as never under license. They have brought from Milwaukee and Chicago Mayor Rose and Lawyer Darrow to tell the people of Worcester that prohibition does not prohibit, etc.

The no-license people have called rally after rally on the results of 13 months of freedom from the saloon. Their arguments were strident, free of the traffic and its fruit, fewer men in jail, fewer in hospital, less number of deaths from alcoholism, fewer women at the rescue mission, better homes, less crime, less poverty, Protestant and Catholic alike, nearly all the business men of prominence, the mayor of the city, the open and persistent advocacy of the no-license, the leading paper. Their claim was that no-license made good.

Both sides made great preparation to go out and vote. The "Noes" had a complete ward and precinct organization for the ten wards of four precincts each, from two to six men in each precinct.

As the day wore on the clouds cleared away and it soon became evident that a big vote would be polled by Mayor Logan was conceded as a winner by a long lead. He has made so fine a mayor that his worst political enemies speak of him as "the salt of the earth," and some people thought the certainty of his election would result in a large reduction of the vote. However, such was not the case. This splendid man, who came in from the country forty years ago and began life by working in a store and sleeping on the floor, has triumphantly been elected for the third time by the big majority of over 3,000.

As for the plans of men! As the returns from the precinct came to the no-license headquarters Secretary R. D. Murphy refused to believe them, so great was the difference from his estimate, but all the subsequent returns told the same story of a perfect landslide toward license. When the returns came all in it became evident that almost 2,000 voters had changed from No to Yes, wiping out the small No margin of last year and piling up a Yes majority of well above 3,000.

The slogan Logan and License seems to have struck a popular chord and the people decided to see what a first class mayor would be like. The election was the cheering point of the season. The cheering point that Lynn had stayed No by a thousand came over and at long distance phone and brought a ray of cheer to the sorry but not discouraged workers.

Stonington Basketball Team Trimmed by Local Players—Heavy Rock Fell on Ankle—Reservoir Makes Gain.

Andrew Cyr of No. 9 Norwich avenue, employed by the Ponemah company met with a severe injury Tuesday morning at 3:30 o'clock. He was working down in the trench where the water mains are being extended to the new weave shed on Norwich avenue when a rock weighing several hundred pounds rolled down the bank into the excavation, striking him on the ankle. Dr. Thompson attended the injured man and alleviated his pain as far as possible. The ankle was found to be badly crushed and Mr. Cyr will be unable to do his house for some time to come. Sympathy is felt for the injured man, as he has a family of children.

OBITUARY.

Miss Annie Barbara Heibel, daughter of George and Margaret Seidel Heibel, of Lisbon, passed away Tuesday morning at 8:45 o'clock at the Sacred Heart hospital following an operation for appendicitis. She was 22 years of age and also afflicted with lung trouble.

She was born June 20, 1892, in New Bedford, Mass., and moved here with her parents later, living since that time in Taftville and Lisbon. She was employed in the Boston office of the German Lutheran church by Rev. Theodor Hauck on Good Friday, in 1928, being ill in health at the time. The text, Rev. 2, 10, Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee the crown of life, having proved singularly appropriate. She bore her illness with patience and her life was blameless.

TAFTVILLE 13, STONINGTON 11.
Home Five Wins by Star Work in Last Two Minutes.

One of the closest, cleverest and most exciting games of basketball yet seen in Taftville happened in Parish hall Tuesday night when the Taftville team defeated Stonington by a score of 13 to 11. The game was a hard fought one, with the Taftville team leading for most of the game. The score was 13 to 11 at the end of the game. The Taftville team was led by their star player, who made five wins in the last two minutes.

Followers of the game knew what was bound to happen when the teams got together, after Stonington's victory of Saturday night, and the largest crowd of the season—nearly 300—was present. The game kept them guessing until the last few minutes, when the Taftville team, led by their star player, made each other all the way through, one leading by a point and then the other. The score finally stood 13 to 11 in favor of the Taftville team.

THE ROUND TABLE MEETS IN GREENVILLE.
Entertained by Bachelor Members—The Topic Was Holland.

Tuesday evening in the season's programme for the Round Table was the night when the club was to be entertained by the bachelor members. William O. Ryther, chairman, and Clifton H. Hobson, secretary, were present. The topic was Holland. The following were the well written papers presented: Industrial Holland, Miss Mary G. Henderson; Haarlem, the Floral Capital of Europe, Mrs. Arthur Blackledge; The Tulip Craze, William O. Ryther; Dutch Museums, Miss Florence E. Fellows. Mrs. Blackmar took the place of Mrs. P. C. Wright, who was unable to be present.

A very enjoyable musical programme was rendered, consisting of two solos, a duet, and a trio. The soloists were: Marion Whitaker, a solo by Master Samuel Crowe, piano solos by Miss Elizabeth Crowe, and a violin solo by William O. Ryther. Refreshments were served.

People's Singing Class.
There was an increased attendance at the People's Singing class in the town hall on Tuesday evening. Director George de Vries, who presided, explained to the members what he intended to have them study for this year. There were additions to the beginners and the old class during the evening. Entries close at the meeting next week.

Something Had to Go.
There was an elderly Indian colonel whose house it was that he had a very tranquil disposition that nothing could ruffle. He took up golf, and for a long time his friends failed to notice any disturbance in the colonel's outward calm; but one day when playing a foursome he got into a notorious "devil's punchbox" bunker, and spent a terrible 15 minutes trying first to find his ball and then to play it out.

He tried every club in vain, and at last, glaring like a demon, he smashed them one after another across a jagged rock.

"What are you doing?" cried one of the party above.

"It's right," the colonel snorted, "it's—it's better to break one's clubs than to lose one's temper!" And the crowd gathered up the pieces.

Official statistics for the first six months of 1929 show continued decline in the population of France. The marriages decreased 6,291 as compared with 1928, divorces increased by 643, births decreased 13,825 and deaths increased by 25,019.

SMOKER AND WHIST

BY ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY.

Delightful Time for the Members Enjoyed Tuesday Evening—Several Addresses and Music—Whist Tournament.

There was a most enjoyable time in the rooms of St. Joseph's Sodality and Literary association Tuesday evening, when a smoker and whist was given, at which about one hundred were present. The affair was a decided success, due to the efforts of the officers—Maurice J. Tarrant, Charles C. McNamara and Thaddeus Leahy.

As the result of the whist, prizes went to Thaddeus Leahy, who secured first, a pearl handled pocket knife, and James McCune, who secured second, a meerschaum pipe. Following the whist Dr. E. J. Brophy interested the members in a talk on tuberculosis and was followed by Rev. W. A. Keefe, who likewise interested the large gathering, and both drew forth much applause.

The genial president, M. J. Buckley, presided at the social hour and introduced the following vocalists: Thomas Slattery, Joseph Sheridan and John Sullivan, who were heard in finely rendered solos, with James Drew as pianist. The Sodality quartette—Thomas Slattery, Joseph Sheridan, Michael Coscoron and John Sullivan—were also heard with much pleasure in several selections.

One of McDougald's fine oyster chowders was served, together with coffee and cake, rounding out an evening of great delight.

A whist tournament has been started by the amusement committee and a pool tournament will be under way soon, entries being received now. The amusement committee includes M. J. Buckley, J. R. Tarrant and William Harrington.
